

Family law

Cooper Grace Ward is one of the few major commercial law firms with a dedicated family law team. Our family law team practises exclusively in this area and our lead partner in the team is an Accredited Family Law Specialist. Our team provides expert, efficient service and practical advice regarding all family law issues.

As part of a larger commercial firm, we are also able to offer in-house advice on related tax, property, commercial and superannuation issues.

We pride ourselves on building meaningful relationships with our clients by developing an understanding of their needs on both a personal and professional level.

Relying on our broad expertise in negotiation, mediation, collaborative law and, where best for your case, litigation and advocacy, our goal is to guide you successfully through each stage of the family law process.

Our key services

Our family law team has a wealth of experience in a broad range of family law issues. We can advise you on a range of matters in relation to:

- property settlements for both married and de facto couples
- binding financial agreements for both married and de facto couples
- children's issues and parenting orders under the Family Law Act
- child support and child maintenance trusts
- surrogacy arrangements
- divorce and separation.

What our clients say

'I would like to personally thank Cooper Grace Ward and the family law team for their support while I was going through the most difficult time in my life. Justine Woods is the most professional, dedicated and proficient lawyer I could have ever imagined and distance was not an issue. Justine's support and guidance through my separation made it all the more easy to deal with. I have always recommended Justine to my friends or anyone that asks me if I know of a good family lawyer. Great work Justine and thank you for being there for me and my children.'

'You have given me some great advice, instructions and tools to deal with my frustrations and I only wish I had this advice 5 years ago.'

'I really cannot thank you enough for everything you have done to help me ... I have felt supported and understood by you and that was very important to me, especially as I am overseas.'
